TRACK II

A. [redacted]

1. Station false-flag staffer met with Viaux group several times on [redacted] October and established his bona fides. This officer, however, had to depart Santiago [redacted]. Another false-flag officer is prepared to takeover contact with Viaux.

2. Puro Chile carried an article on 10 October which reported that Major Marshall was in touch with the Americans [redacted]

3. Station reported that Senator Alberto Jerez (a leader of the UP Action Movement) is serving as the principal contact for Allende with the Armed Forces. Allende has established direct contact with a variety of military leaders.

B. Accomplishments:

General Viaux has accepted the bona fides of the Station false-flagger and has dropped his ultimatum: "No drop, no talks." This false-flagger has returned to Headquarters for debriefing and another officer will establish contact with Viaux.

C. Situation:

The situation remains essentially unchanged. We continue to focus our attention on General Viaux who now appears to be the only military leader willing to block Allende. Meanwhile, Allende continues to seek out support within the military. Recent reporting indicates that he is skillfully making inroads into the military and Carabineros.
